NOTED ARTISTS TO APPEAR AT THE TEMPLE THEATER

Enterprising Music Firm will Present Misses Rice and Packard in a Unique Recital

Miss Gladys Rice, the celebrated American soprano, assisted by Miss Adeline Packard, will be heard in an unique recital at the Temple theater on the afternoon of Nov. 4th at four o'clock.

Miss Rice is one of the most promising young sopranos now on the concert stage. She is the possessor of a brilliant soprano voice of very distinctive quality. She was born in New York city, and has accomplished her vocal artistic training entirely in America, of which fact she is very proud.

Miss Rice will present a program of some of the best known and most popular songs in the English tongue. The fact that she is assisted by such a charming artist as Miss Packard lends added interest to the affair.

The recital is to be complimentary in character, admittance being by card of introduction only which may be secured from the Kelly-Miller Music Co., so long as accommodations remain.

Jimmy Swaim the outdoor artist has repainted Hunter's sign, on the northeast corner of the square, and metamorphosed it into an elegant ornament.

Among the young ladies who suffered from the fire by the burning of East Hall at the Woman's College, Tallahassee, were Misses Lucille Gissendanner, Teresa Murphy and Eva Theus of Ocala. None of them were injured, being at church when the fire broke out, but they lost all their belongings. Their friends here are glad they didn't lose their lives.

Somebody played a most despicable trick on Mr. Edward Green Saturday night, letting all the wind out of the tires of his car. It remained in that condition all night and the tires, it is believed, are ruined. Supposed to be the work of some All Hallows' even artist. We didn't suppose any Ocala boy would do anything to make trouble for Mr. Green, who is suffering yet from his severe wound received two years ago, and needs his car every time he has to make more than a short walk.

THREE-RINGED CIRCUS COMING TO OCALA

A real three-ringed circus is coming to town, with lions and tigers, two herds of elephants, tango and shimmy dancing horses intermingling with human stars and with troops of clowns let loose between the thrills.

The Sparks circus which is coming to Ocala on Tuesday, November 16th, is huge and grand and new enough to warrant the very highest of praise.

Everyone will laugh at the capering clowns, gasp at the feature acts and shudder at the sensations crowded together in two hours and a half. The biggest and most daring of the animal acts are the two elephant herds, one of which includes the mighty monster, Big Zulu, "the skyscraper elephant." Less spectacular, maybe, but almost as sensational, are the Harrison bears who are not only natural born comedians, but have been taught such difficult feats as roller skating, riding bicycles, boxing and wrestling, walking the tightrope and even the playing of musical instruments has been mastered by these four-footed actors. Just to add good measure to the performance it is interspersed with a score or more of high class stars of the arenic world.

Of course there are clowns and forty of them will surely make you laugh, if you have one stored away in you. Altogether the wonderful program presented under the "big top" of the Sparks circus will give boundless pleasure to big and small.
